She also informed the commission members that she is looking at April 17th for an event which will be painting, pizza, soda. She added that she is waiting for an approval on the date.

- Rainbow Day Camp

She noted that staff applications will be available in the beginning of April. She also has the ad that will be placed in the newspaper (see attached). She also informed the commission members that she applied again for the Paul Magera Grant it's with the Junior Women's Club and they use that money for a field trip to Lake Compounce.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Chairperson Clair was present to report the following:

She informed the commission members that she attended the Winter Sports Banquet for the High School at the Aqua Turf last week. She indicated that she is proud of Wolcott because they really focused on the unified sports at the banquet.

She also noted that last month she wanted to thank Pete Carey for removing the snow to the shed but she didn't have time and she is going to do that.

- Special Games

Chairperson Clair stated that she purchased 4 new tables. She advised the commission members that they still need trash cans, coolers and a tent. She stated that she has to go to the shed to take an inventory of what they have. Mrs. Amato said she will help her.

CORRESPONDENCE/PUBLICITY

Chairperson Clair noted that she sent out thank you notes to Mr. & Mrs. Hanson and the American Legion.

OLD BUSINESS

- George Lane Memorial Campership

Mrs. Miller stated that the cover letter with the general applications were sent out with the check to the campers, so they could pick their dates.

Chairperson Clair mentioned that she received one complaint that they didn't receive the application. She noted that it is not their fault and she apologized and told them to check with their mailman. Mr. Vallancourt mentioned that there were issues with the mailmen delivering mail.

Mrs. Thompson pointed out that she knows the whole situation and that person does know every year when these applications are sent out and she is surprised that she didn't call to tell them that she didn't receive an application.

- Logo for shirts

The commission members had a brief discussion regarding the logo on their shirts.

The commission members decided to remove "Wolcott Connecticut" and replace it with the date that the commission was established which was "1978" (see attached).

Mr. Vallancourt pointed out that Silkscreen Plus cannot do the banners.

The commission members had a discussion whether they should pay for the shirts themselves, at which time they decided to take the money out of the G/L account (see attached). They also added that they will be ordering 10 shirts.

The commission also had a discussion regarding banners.

Mr. Vallancourt mentioned that he received an estimate from Signatures Limited for 2 banners 3'x 20' for across the road with rope, hem and heavy gussets 2 sided for $360.00 each and 1 banner 2'x 6' 1 side for $84.00. Also for changing the dates on 12 existing signs the cost is $4.50 each.

The commission members had a brief discussion and they decided on the 1 banner 2'x 6' for $84.00 and 12 existing signs for $4.50 each.
