RECREATION

- Recreation Coordinator's Report

Amanda Clair came forward to present the following:

- Stricker's bowling league.

Ms. Clair informs the commission members that bowling started October 15th and runs through March 18th which is held at Wolcott Lanes from 10:00 am to 12:00 and the cost for that is $10.00 per week.

- Farmingbury Women' Club

Ms. Clair informed the commission members that they are planning a banquet.

- Annual Holiday party

She stated that the party was at Wolcott Landowners on December 3rd. and she wanted to thank everyone who stopped by.

She also noted that they had food catered from Spartans and Santa came to hand out gift cards.

- Dance

Ms. Clair informed the commission members that they will be having a Dance on January 20th at the Youth Center from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm and they will be serving pizza.

Mrs. DelGobbo pointed out when people are coming to the events, they are letting them walk-in by themselves, or they are going outside to be picked up and she feels that is not safe.

The commission members had a brief discussion and they decided to have them escort in and out and they must stay in the building, and they will all have names tags.

Ms. Clair noted that when she makes up the flyers, she will place this verbiage on the flyer.

Also, she would appreciate it if anyone could come to help serve the food and supervise.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Chairperson Clair was present to report the following.

Chairperson Clair informed the commission that the Lion Club did not charge them for their dance. She also stated that she gave out a thank you card to them.

- Thankful Dinner

Chairperson Clair stated that the dinner went very well. She also points out that people still are talking to her about it. She also added that the seating was limited but they managed to get everyone in, she also added that they had to pay for some of the meals because people did not RSVP them, they just came.
