- Recreation Coordinator's Report

Amanda Clair came forward to present the following:

She stated that they held a dance on April 21, 2023, at the Youth Center with light refreshments. She also mentioned that Chris Culver did an optional chocolate making class which was a lot of fun and the individuals really enjoyed it.

She also informed the commission members that their next activity will be June 16th and it will be a paint night at the Youth Center.

- Rainbow day Camp

She informed the commission members that the staff applications are at the following locations (High School, Town hall and it was placed on their Facebook page, Wolcott voice. She also added that it was in the May Community news.

She pointed out that she received 4 applications and only one staff member returning from last year.

She also stated that without a full staff (which is at least 10 members) they will not be able to hold camp.

The commission had a brief discussion to see how they will proceed with this issue.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Chairperson Clair informed the commission that they are honoring Patrick Caffrey tomorrow at the town hall at 4:30 as mayor of the week. She asked if everyone could stop in. She added that this is an important moment in his life and important to their program.

She also mentioned that they received $100.00 from the Excel Club at Wolcott High School. And she also sent a thank you note.

She pointed out that they received only one application for George Lane memorial camp which was from Mrs. Glasser for David Glasser. They had a brief discussion in which they excused Mrs. Glasser from the room, and they decided to send David Glasser to camp, and it will be revealed at Special games.

She also informed the commission members that the Exchange club will donate the tee shirts for Special games.

She also noted that she spoke with the mayor regarding the electricity at Woodtick and they are all set.

She also noted that they went to the shed to put together the new cart and they have two now for special games. She also added that there were other things that needed to be put together and they organized everything.
